RE: Graduating Senior Scholarship Opportunities

Principals & School Leaders,

I am offering two (2) scholarships in the amount of $500 for graduating seniors currently residing in State Senate District 56. Students must apply no later than April 30, 2020 and awards will be paid directly to the institution of higher learning.

The first scholarship is designated for a student pursuing a career as a First Responder (Firefighter, EMS, Law Enforcement). The second scholarship is for a student pursuing a future in elected office. Specifics can be found below for the application process.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Most sincerely,
